Some Meditations

The Old Year and Eternity

The old year, 1910, will soon have passed into history. We part with it as with an old friend. To some it has brought much joy, to others sorrow. Yet we are reluctant to say farewell. Like a palsied man it totters as it nears the end of life's journey and goes forward toward that vast vault wherein doth lie the forms of dead dynasties and sheeted centuries swept by the remorseless hand of time to that great graveyard at the entrance of which rises the imaginary tombstone upon which is inscribed these words: THE PAST. There is a sublime solemnity in the slowly moving, yet never varying tide of years. Man has marked its course into hours, days, weeks, months, years and centuries, yet it rushes on, on, on, and still on, utterly unmindful of the puny marks raised to measure the tide that never tides. Dynasties have rose, flourished and decayed; cities have sprung from fertile plains and then sank beneath the desert's drifting sands; continents have reared their lofty brows above the ocean's trackless waste, only to return to the coral caverns from whence they rose; races have risen to the noon of splendor and become lost in the depths of night, but Time, patient, plodding, tireless Time, sweeps on with the same regularity as when it first issued forth, from the hollow of God's hand, to the chant of the morning stars that proclaimed creation's dawn. And yet time is but the image of eternity, the shadow of a shoreless sea, the type of a duration for which all the ages past and all the aeons to come would not make or constitute the first faint flush of the first streak of the dawn of its second morning. "Eternity! thou pleasing, dreadful thought! That never ending reign succeeding the crash of matter and the wreck of worlds, suns and systems! Intelligence has achieved wonders. It has read the stars in the heavens and can foretell to a second when the great fiery sun will be hidden in eclipse; it can read the history of the creation on the rocks and unfold the things secreted in the bowels of the earth, but when it attempts to grasp the significance of eternity it stands abashed and dumfounded at its inability to comprehend the infinite plan.

With this issue of the Eagle we are saying good-bye to the old year. It is slipping away from us with all its memories. A live chord awakes in our hearts, a chord of pain pierces our being as we realize that another year will soon be gone forever, gone with its sunshine and its shadow, its joy and its pain, its many opportunities lost or otherwise.

As the shadows gather round us at the closing of the year, we look back at days departed and maybe drop a tear.

Yet we know we are nearer to the home of joy and love; Nearer to the "many mansions" Of "our Father's" house above.

Let each of us have the courage to start right and keep right.

Always have the courage to pay a debt while you have the money in your pocket.

An Ordinance

The Board of Trustees of the Town of Whitesburg do ordain as follows:

It shall be the duty of every owner of real estate and of every tenant, person in possession, occupant, manager, or person having control of any real estate, buildings or otherwise, within the corporate limits of the town of Whitesburg, which real estate borders on any sidewalk, highway, street or alley within the corporate limits of said town, to keep the premises on and about said real estate and sidewalks, highways, streets or alleys bordering thereon, free from waste, stone, wood, paper or debris of any kind. And if either of the persons above named shall place on said premises, streets, highways, sidewalks or alleys any waste or rubbish as above set out, or shall permit same to remain thereon when so placed by another, or shall fail to keep said premises, sidewalks, highways, streets or alleys clean and free from waste of rubbish as aforesaid, they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon a conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than one dollar nor more than fifteen dollars. It shall be no defense to any prosecution for a violation of this ordinance that the person charged did not himself commit the offense, or suffer the provisions hereof to be violated by another, provided the person charged be the owner, tenant, person in control, or person in possession as aforesaid.

W. W. SERGENT,
Chairman Board Trustees,
J. M. Bentley.

Saved from Awful Death

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N.C. R.F.D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried and so completely cured her that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, erup, hemorrhage, all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Whitesburg Drug Store.

Mountain View Hotel Opens Up

The Mountain View Hotel is now under a new management and is up-to-date in all respects. The traveling public will be given special attention. For the present our rates will be $1 per day. Table fare and all other accommodations first class. Give us a call when in Whitesburg.

Mountain View Hotel,
Stephen Combs, Mgr.

The greatest danger from influenza is of its resulting in pneumonia. This can be obviated by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as it not only cures influenza, but counteracts any tendency of the disease toward pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

Hon. Green A. Collins in Jail

Sometime ago our friend and neighbor, Green Collins, of Omaha, Knott county, was arrested and taken to Catlettsburg on a charge of being a "silent partner" in a government distillery. Whether Mr. Collins had stock in the distillery or not we have no way of knowing, but he could have beaten the case had he desired to implicate some of his good friends. But after going into trial on a plea of not guilty he decided to withdraw the plea and let the judge fix the penalty. This was done and a few days ago the judge decided to give Mr. Collins three months in jail and $100 fine. Not many of our readers would ever think it a crime to be a silent partner in a distillery run by Uncle Sam and yet it is.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by all dealers.

Call On US!

Get your letter heads, envelopes, bill heads, statements, circulars, and anything else in the printers' line done at the Eagle office. No limit to the stock on hand and of the very best grades of material. Satisfaction is the word or no pay.

NOTICE

The normal department of the Whitesburg graded school will open Jan. 2, 1911, and continue twenty weeks, the last six weeks being preparatory for examination. The department will be in charge of E. B. Hale, principal of the graded school, and every effort will be made to maintain the excellent standing that the Whitesburg school has held for the last two years. Tuition in this department will be $2 per month. Board can be had at $8 to $10 per month payable in advance. For particulars as to course of study, tuition in other departments, etc., call on or address the trustees or principal of the graded school.

Millstone

Xmas was quiet. John Q. Holbrooks' new mill is ready for sawing.

Nelson Hampton was on Camp Branch.

Mrs. Enoch Potter, of Oreknob, is visiting here.

L. J. Adams and son are in Magoffin county.

Sarah and Charlie Adkins spent Xmas with their sister, Mrs. Craft.

Simmie Adams is moving to Knott.

Mrs. P. A. Craft is ill.

N. R. Craft and P. E. Holcomb made a "spankin" mule trade.

B. J. Franklin caught a large Blue-Jay.

Banks On Sure Thing Now

"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills again," writes A. Schingeeck, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N.Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed. Unexhausted for biliousness, jaundice, indigestion headache, chills, malaria and debility. 25c at Whitesburg Drug Store."

After Many, Many Years

Forty years ago J. Monroe Adams, son of Bill Adams (Tolson) left this country and settled in Texas. Not far from the same time Stephen, his brother, also pulled up his stakes and migrated to the then new and unexplored Northwest. He settled in Minnesota and soon became a wealthy farmer in that section. Both the boys (old men now) decided some months ago to visit their old home, the scene of their childhood days. And so for some weeks they have been in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky enjoying themselves. We did not get to meet Stephen Adams, but Monroe was in town Monday and we had the pleasure of shaking his hand and conversing with him.

The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

Largest in World

Our readers have doubtless noticed the advertising of the Cortright Manufacturing Co., 50 N. 23rd St., Philadelphia, Pa., in the Eagle and we hope those who have had reason to be interested in roofing material have profited thereby. This company is by far the largest maker of metal shingles in the world, and their product is well and favorably known all over the United States. They are always glad to give prompt attention to inquiries and to either send samples and quote prices to those likely to be in need of roofing, or refer them to a nearby local agent.

SOMETHING JUST AS GOOD Can only be the case when it is another bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Every bottle the same. Look for the bell on the bottle.

A Landmark.

Though still hale and hearty and able to chat intelligently among her friends here, Aunt Sally Fugate maintains the distinction of being about the only woman who lived in town before the war and who is still here. Aunt Sally knows everybody and everybody knows her. May what few of these dear old mothers that now remain with us be still spared for many years to come.

GRANULATED EYE LIDS are easily cured—eustatic is not necessary. Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve is painless and harmless and guaranteed to cure. Has never failed on a case, cost 25c.

Thanks

Mineral, Wash., Dec. 17
Dear Editor,
Please let the Eagle fly to me another year. I take great pleasure in reading my home paper. I think I will come back to my own county when the R. R. comes. This is a fine healthy country, fine climate and a great place to hunt bear and deer. I trust all our folks there are well.
J. D. Hale.

Young Man Hurt

Saturday evening soon after a big blast had been let off near town several boys rushed over among the rocks to look into the bursted and broken stones. Among the number was Frank Caudill, aged about 20, son of Dixon Caudill (Fiddler) of Sandlick. This young man came across a piece of dynamite and after applying a lighted match to it was standing close by watching it burn. Of course it let loose with a heavy jar the charge striking the young man about the head and shoulders. He was picked up apparently blind, his face bruised and bleeding. He will recover but his eyes will likely be permanently injured. The greatest mystery is that the young man was not blown into fragments.

Now, if you are a paid-up Eagle subscriber you get the four first named for only $1.25. If you want to pay for the Eagle a year add $1 to the amount. Send to the Eagle, not to the Post.

FOR SALE

The residence of H. C. Boggs, and also real estate and personal property. It is located within 50 yds of P.O. and the same distance from two stores. The residence is a good 8-room 2-story building and a good storehouse. Fine water within 10 steps of door. All property enclosed by good wire fence. Excellent location, sanitary situation. For full particulars write, H. C. Boggs, Eolia, Ky.

Work Progresses

Doggett & Doughty, sub-contractors under Luck Construction Co., on the L. & E. Ry. are pushing their work right along. Everyone is surprised at the progress being made. It is reported that about 100 work hands are expected this week to work on the lower end.

Some Freight

A half dozen or more of single and two horse wagons passed through Tuesday on the way to Stonega where it is said they will tackle 80,000 pounds of freight consigned to J. J. Keller, manager of the bridge work for the L. & E.

It Was the Best Ever

Last Saturday a guest at the "KY" Hotel awoke in the night and found himself very thirsty. In scrambling around he came across a drink of water and imbibed it freely. It then occurred to him that he had just swallowed a draught of the best water that ever "wet his whistle." Dressing himself he passed from room to room in the hotel begging the guests to get up and take a taste of the wonderful water. Finally he called on the genial proprietor of the hostelry and begged him to publish it to the world that the best water on earth could be had at the "KY" Hotel.

Wants to Help Someone

For thirty years J. F. Boyer, of Fertile, Mo., needed help and couldn't find it. That's why he wants to help some one now. Suffering so long himself he feels for all distress from backache, nervousness, loss of appetite, lassitude and kidney disorders. He shows that Electric Bitters work wonders for such troubles. "Five bottles," he writes, "wholly cured me and now I am well and hearty." It's also positively guaranteed for Liver trouble, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders, Female complaints and Malaria. Try them. 50c at Whitesburg Drug Store.

NOTICE

The White Oak Lumber Co., composed of David Hays, Sam Collins, Jno. A. Webb and Ben E. Caudill, will pay twenty-five dollars for evidence to convict any person or persons of the offense of cutting or destroying any timber or defacing brands of any timber branded in the bark with the letter "X". Call on or address either of the firm at Whitesburg, Ky.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R.R. and Wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., or Philadelphia, Pa.

Has the Truck

W. Finley Bentley, of Spider, Knott county, in closing a business letter to us says: "We don't get our Eagle like we ought. Please so inform the postmasters along the route. Tell the public that I made 2,000 bushels of corn this year and have 106 big fat hogs for sale. My corn and hogs must bring the big price or they don't go. Send me a buyer."

Note—There is much complaint along the route from Whitesburg to Hindman as to subscribers not getting the paper as they ought. Two complaints from two different readers at Bath reach us. Will the postmasters along the route and at the offices of delivery please see that subscribers to the Eagle get their paper as they ought. They are entitled to it under the law.

They Spent It Right.

At this writing we have not heard from the country but in Whitesburg it was the prettiest Christmas you ever heard of. There was no doubt plenty of whisky, plenty of pistols and plenty of everything else with which to create disturbance but there was not a single scream from a drunk man, not a single row or disturbance of any sort and there was not a shot from a pistol or gun or a firecracker heard. Indeed, it was a sane, a sensible, and a God-honoring Christmas. Peace and good will abounded everywhere and in town at least fifty big fat turkeys adorned as many festive boards. No tongue could tell and no pencil write how glad we are that our people decided to spend at least one Christmas in the proper spirit and in the right way. Certainly the future will be more roseate for them on account of it.

NOT GOOD

for everything. Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve is good for nothing but the eyes. If you use it and are not satisfied come back and get your 25c. You be the judge.

Notice

All persons are hereby warned under penalty of law not to cut, destroy or remove any timber or other thing of value from the land of Susan M. Walters, on Schoolhouse branch near Whitesburg, Ky., bounded by the land formerly owned by N. R. Day Cowan Ridge, the lands of W. G. Caudill, J. P. Lewis and W. W. Long. A reward of $25 will be paid for evidence to convict any person or persons guilty of the offense indicated above.

W. M. Walters,
U.S. Pension Bureau,
Washington, D.C.

ECZEMA

Is considered hard to cure. Try Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve and you will change your mind. You will see an improvement from the first application.

Praise, Pike Co.

Last Sunday night the spirit of Henry Adkins passed to the great beyond. He was about 65 years old and leaves a widow and several children. The remains were laid to rest in Ash Camp cemetery.

J. M. Hubbard returned from Haysi, Va.

Mrs. Sarah Conley left for Coeburn to visit her father, Lee Johnson.

Mrs. Dora Stiltner is ill.

A sawmill will soon be running at mouth of Island Branch.

Sherman Shortridge and Henry Deel are home from Dante, Va.

Wm. Harris, of Camp Branch, was here.

Misses Bettie and Ida Elam visited up the river.

Goldendale.

Let's make this true of Whitesburg: Our men are those of enterprise, of gumption, grit and grace, who believe that good improvements should have no second place.

LOCAL NEWS

The Board of Supervisors meet in the County Clerk's office on next Monday.

Some wagoners, two of whom were Randall Day and Add Miller, while on their way to Norton and while on the head of Guests river had their wagons entered by sneak thieves and robbed of several dollars worth of hides and fur-skins.

Mrs. Davis had the misfortune to stick a rusty nail in her foot but is doing nicely.

Uncle Dave Holcomb will preach on the head of Linefork next Saturday and Sunday. On this trip Uncle Dave will solicit subscriptions to the Eagle and any money paid to him will be the same as if paid to us.

Reports from all over the country indicate that Xmas passed off very quietly.

At Louisville Wendling, the convicted murderer of little Alma Kellner, was denied a new trial by Judge Gregory.

The great Union Stock-yards at Chicago was burned and about 30 person lost their lives.

The oyster supper and bazaar given by the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church was a success in every way.

The Riverside Hotel on lower Main Street will be opened to the public on or about January first.

As we go to press Uncle Stephen Adams is reported no better.

Jno. A. Webb is building some shanties for rent purposes.

Mrs. Jane Brashears has been on the puny list.

The Democrats will hold a State primary in May to nominate candidates for the State offices.

The merchant or business man who advertises his wares is the one who succeeds. Let the outside world know that there is more than one store and a post-office in our town.

Mrs. J. C. Cantrell is visiting her parents at Oil Springs, Johnson county.

Grant Stallard spent Christmas with his parents on the head of Crafts Colly.

Kelly Fields, E. L. Baker, Miss Carrie Combs and her sister, Miss

Nettie, who spent Christmas here, all left for Hazard Tuesday morning.

The public will please look out for some big advertising by Ira Fields & Co., in the next few issues of the Eagle.

Some very beautiful weather followed immediately after Xmas.

The editor's better half is still confined to her room, in very poor health.

Whitesburg has grown more in the last ten years than it grew in the forty years preceding this time. The fact is it stood nearly thirty years almost without a new building being added. It will double by this time next year.

Since there were no fatalities, no accidents, no shootings and woundings and everybody housed up sober and gentlemanly for Christmas there is almost no local news this week.

When spring opens up and the weather gets in shape it will be a grand sight to see the railroad building that will be going on up and down the North Fork.

Bill Reynolds' will soon erect Karl Davis a nice brick chimney for his new residence near the Eagle's nest.

Correspondents should report from their neighborhoods every week whether there is any news or not.

Mr. and Mrs. Mendell B. Parsons left Friday for Wagsville, the home of Mr. Parsons' parents.

Enoch W. Frazier spent a few days with friends at Poor Fork.

During the year 1910 we ordered and paid for over seven hundred dollar's worth of stationery and other necessary supplies.

ERMINE

Xmas passed quietly. Uncle Ed Combs is not very well.

George Ison, of Bilvia, was here.

Uncle Isaac and Aunt Mandy Williams spent Christmas with Hiram Williams.

Lizzie Williams, of Thornton, was here.

A good sized crowd enjoyed the Christmas dinner at J. M. Days', among them Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Doggett and Miss Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. Warfield and daughter, Maud Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Doggett, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lusk and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Doggett. Gretchen.

By Telephone

Hello, hello! Is that you Eagle? Yes, this is Millstone. Why, we are all sober again, so far as I know, at least; the fact is nobody got drunk for Christmas. We have all been too busy up here to indulge. Millstone is humming with business, the Bentley mill is running almost day and night supplying the railroad people with lumber. You know the firm? Well, Sherman Bentley is president, Patrick Bates treasurer and Dr. Cramer general manager. Timber turns to lumber and lumber to money over night. Prices range from $10. per thousand and up. The genial John Holbrook has just pulled in on the branch with a new Frick outfit and is setting up on Pat Bates' place. If you or anyone else is in need call. Strangers must be identified. We had a wedding for Christmas; Mr. Mayo Holbrook led Miss Amanda Tolliver to the altar. So it goes. I am sure there are other eligibles. We saw the smiling countenance of Assessor Geo. Adams here a day or so ago; looking up some property maybe; luckily I had none. News is scarce here except Elihu Adams' chimney fell down; supposed to be too much Christmas. Say, Santa Claus did the proper thing here for the little folks, and all is well.

If you want to enjoy yourself and at the same time see the busiest part of Letcher county, come up here and break bread with us. No, I don't know of anything more.

F. G. Remark.

Nature's Limitations.

Croesus, the richest man of his day, told Solon that "the gods are jealous of human prosperity." The German proverb better expresses it: "Trees are not permitted to grow up into the sky."

A CARD

To My Many Friends, Merchants, Commissary Clerks, Etc., Greeting.

The writer takes this method, through the courtesy of the Mountain Eagle, to give bundles and bundles of thanks for the numerous favors, courtesies and kindnesses showered upon him during the year nearly closing, and extends to them package after package of greeting and good will for a glorious holiday season and wishes to each that the coming year will bring three hundred and sixty-five peaceful, prosperous, happy days. The coming year will be a good one to all the merchandise dealers in my territory if the opportunity now presenting itself is rightly considered and the advantages presented are looked after and rightly used. I will be to see you the coming year as often as possible and hope that my dealings in the past will merit a continuance of your business.

The past year has been a very successful one for me, and if good goods, honest prices and square dealings can make it better I will be pleased to hand them to you by the handful. Give me a chance to do this and see me smile a smile a mile wide and a year long.

Again thanking you for past favors and soliciting your future business, I beg to remain, Yours very truly,

Well Answered.

During the encampment of several regiments of British soldiers in a certain district the wood and turf used for cooking purposes were carted by the neighboring farmers. One day a donkey-cart full of turf was brought in, the driver being a country lad. As a regimental band was playing, he stood in front of the donkey and held the animal tightly by the head. Some of the "smart ones" gathered round, highly pleased, and the wit of the party asked why he "held his brother so tightly." The reply was crushing: "I'm afraid he might enlark."

Pain in Heart

"For two years I had pain in my heart, back and left side. Could not draw a deep breath or lie on left side, and any little exertion would cause palpitation. Under advice I took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Nerveine. I took about thirteen bottles, am in better health than I ever was, and have gained 14 pounds."

MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

For many years Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has been very successful in the treatment of heart troubles, because of its tonic effect upon the heart nerves and muscles. Even in severe cases of long standing it has frequently prolonged life for many years after doctors had given up all hope, as proven by thousands of letters we have received from grateful people.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money.
